

BACK FROM THE FRONT!

Daly City Record publisher representatives this week are back to their desks from the front of the most important and most active convention ever staged by California newsmen.

In session at Coronado, January 16, 17 and 18, Daly City Record staff members pledged with four hundred other California publishers and their representatives to aid in the winning of this war and the winning of the peace to follow. Constant roar of military planes in training and patrol flights over the San Diego area at times almost drowned out address and discussion; but better served to confirm the high program of accomplishments set by the convention.

Newsmen were in on several real stories from such ace war figures as Carson Taylor, publisher of the Manila Bulletin; James R. Young, former I.N.S. Tokio correspondent; John B. Hughes, radio commentator; Robert Gros, Washington spot news authority, and many high military officials.

Led by constructive suggestion and motivated by a fiery energy, publishers girded themselves for a two-fold victory program:

1. To make a supreme war effort at home by full-fledged cooperation in America's military program, and also to aid by practicing and promoting the "Business as Usual" policy in civilian life.

2. To aid in winning this war and in maintaining the peace that is to follow. Fair settlements and control of ambitious military war cliques bent on world aggression were proposed post war aims.

In an interview on returning from convention, the Daly City Record publisher outlined the convention objectives in terms of local application:

To support and stimulate every phase of the war cause: enlistment of men, increased production of war materials, sale of defense bonds, further development of civilian defense, practice and encouragement of "Business as Usual" policy in civilian life.

More Than Hundred Join Colma AWVS

With over one hundred women already enrolled in the American Voluntary Services in Colma, registrations were still being made this week at the Colma Community Center. Daily registration has been discontinued at Jefferson annex, but volunteers can still register at the Colma Community Center on Thursday from 1:30 p.m. to 4 p.m., and from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Designed to carry on Red Cross and defense work in the national war effort, the A. W. V. S. introduced the first course for 34 volunteers last week when a course of first aid was introduced. Under the direction of Miss Juanita Young, Jefferson high school teacher and local

To Start Night Activities Again

Night activities of the Daly City WPA Recreation department will be resumed, Monday, February 2, at the Jefferson high school gymnasium, according to Mrs. Marie Burton, director of the local recreation department.

After six weeks of inactivity, as a result of blackout complications at the building, the gymnasium at the high school has prepared for blackouts and is ready to function as a center for Recreation athletics. Windows in all the dressing rooms have been covered to prevent illumination to the outside during blackouts.

Louis Stadelman, local Recreation athletic leader, has arranged a full schedule of basketball games, and a program of badminton will be played at the gymnasium.

Push Defense Effort

To Centralize All Communications

Establishment of a communications center for civilian defense in Daly City was foreseen this week as Civilian Defense Council Chairman Arthur J. Bodien disclosed plans for telephone contacts with communications centers of San Francisco and San Mateo county.

Bodien stated that, in the event of a major disaster in Daly City, civilian defense headquarters in the city hall have three lines that are open, and either San Francisco or San Mateo county can always be reached. They have lines that are always open for civilian defense use only.

Senior air raid wardens have been instructed to keep their lines at their residences clear as much as possible, so that they can be reached by telephone without delay. In addition, chiefs of different departments in the civilian defense organization can be contacted by telephone at any time by the Civilian Defense headquarters. However, Bodien said that a central communications system will likely be adopted in Daly City soon.

Under the training course of San Mateo county, the auxiliary fire and police officers, and the air raid wardens, are being drilled under their superiors. Auxiliary firemen are meeting twice a week for specialized fire drills. Air raid wardens are receiving training in first aid and fire drills.

Assurance of the sincerity of civilian defense officers was given

Prepared to serve the injured in case of a major disaster in Daly City, the fully equipped emergency medical station, shown above, is located at Jefferson Union high school. Nurse in the picture is Velva Childers, a Red Cross nurse, who is stationed at Villa sanitarium in Daly City. She is a volunteer nurse in the Civilian Defense Council.

Joe Sarto, in charge of hospital facilities in the local civilian defense organization, established the medical unit, pronouncing it an ideal location to take care of first aid and surgery. In the hospital business for many years, Sarto is an authority on medical institutions. He is manager of Villa sanitarium.

The medical station is located on the basement floor of the high school, adjoining the dining room. The surgical room is surrounded by re-inforced concrete walls, affording an effective shelter against enemy bombs.

John D. McLaughlin Wins Second Promotion

A second promotion within a year's time in the United States army has been awarded John D. McLaughlin, son of Mrs. Lottie McLaughlin, 180 Irvington street.

Young McLaughlin has been promoted to the commission of second lieutenant after completing a training course at Camp Lee, Virginia, as a quartermaster officer candidate. He began the course, October 13, having reported to the southern camp after service at Camp Roberts.

He reported for duty this week at Fort Francis E. Warren Replacement center at Cheyenne, Wyoming.

McLaughlin's first promotion came in May, 1941, when he became a staff sergeant. A member of the Army Reserve, McLaughlin was called into service in February, 1941.

Red Cross Names Bodien Chairman

Comprehensive plans for immediate determination of the extent of damage and injury resulting from bombing, sabotage, or other disaster in San Mateo county, in order to facilitate administration of civilian relief, have been announced by the San Mateo County Chapter Red Cross Disaster Relief committee.

Arthur J. Bodien, civilian defense chief in Daly City, was selected as chairman of the Daly City community survey committee, and Edmund Cavnarano, member of the city council, was appointed to serve with Bodien. Bodien is one of the originators of the disaster relief plan that was introduced in San Mateo county in 1941, several months before the declaration of war.

Community survey committees have been established in each of the fifteen cities within the county Red Cross chapter area. The

Classes

SENIORS

What fun and excitement—what are we talking about, why graduation of course. You should have seen the high senior class, Friday. They could be seen in the auditorium trying on their robes for graduation. They strutted and paraded, proud as pea-cocks of their new gowns—ah, to be a senior.

JINX

Almost half of the student body attended the senior jinx, sponsored by the graduation class of '42, last Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. G. Reandeau, senior advisor, announces that the class cleared about seventy dollars.

SENIOR BALL

Doris Degliantoni, chairman of the senior ball committee, today announced the names of her receiving line for the ball. Acting as reception committee will be: Mr. and Mrs. James Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Reandeau, Mr. and Mrs. D. Moseley, Miss Martha Springer, William Feole, Miss A. Behrens, Dietrich Vollbrecht, and Howard Miguel.

Students working on the ball committee include: Mary Picchi, Norman Simonetti, Martha Preciado, G. Silvas, Art McCrystle, Norma Wiseman, Albert Bracco, Keith Fretwell, Tom Rancatore, Maxine Hudson and John Nordquist.

ASSEMBLY

Mrs. May P. Carmody, manager of the Junior division of the U. S. Employment service, was scheduled to address the student body, yesterday. Her subject was "Employment Opportunities for Modern Youth."

ELECTION

Better start looking the candidates over—election is just around the corner. This afternoon all members of the student body will be present in the auditorium to hear campaign speeches.

Mrs. Effie Andersen, student advisor, announces that there are a number of students running for offices.

Nominations were accepted all last week. After checking on grades and qualifications, names of candidates will be announced. Election will be held the end of this week or the early part of next week.

Campus Fashions

It won't be long now 'till you don your new evening frock, dab a bit of your favorite perfume behind your ears, catch up your evening wrap and dash down stairs to meet your Mr. Somebody, who will escort you to the senior ball. Yes sir, it's that close—in fact, if you're real interested, it is only about 48 hours away.

The very prettiest of formals on a lovely girl will be entirely wasted if her manners don't match. Better take a few shakes to brush up on Emily Post's ball room manners.

One rule that is very often forgotten, although it is very important, is to introduce strangers to your faculty receiving line.

If your one and only is a newcomer to the school, and doesn't know any of the people about, it is customary and nice to introduce him to a group of your friends.

If Joe, who sits next to you in algebra, asks for the fourth dance, it is fine to accept but be sure that your escort has been introduced to some 'young-things' so that he, too, can enjoy the fourth dance.

Upon leaving the dance, to say good night to the receiving line and the committee in charge of the dance is a nice gesture which will be appreciated.

This week's campus bouquet goes to a very popular senior. She was busy as could be finishing up plans for the senior ball when we spied her. Dressed in a darling maroon checked wool dress, fashioned with long sleeves and tiny front pleats, she named typing as her favorite subject, and playing the piano as her hobby. Put at the top of her sports list

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to so appear and answer, the plaintiff will take judgment for any money or damages demanded in the complaint as arising upon contract, or will apply to the Court for any other relief demanded in the complaint.

Music

Plans were near completion for the entertainment at Sharp Park for service men, stated Howard Miguel, instructor of the Indians of Rhythm. His entire group will present a social program for the service men, Sunday, between 2 p. m. and 4:30 p. m. The army is furnishing transportation.

Lots of new songs, music and novelty numbers have been scheduled by the band for their semi-annual appearance at the senior ball, Friday. From all rumors, decorations of the auditorium are unique but secret.

ORCHESTRA

Members of Jefferson's orchestra will present a program for the members of the P. T. A., this afternoon. Oscar Busch, music instructor, will conduct the group.

The beautiful "Blue Danube Waltz" by Johann Strauss is their selection. "The orchestra has been working very hard on this number and I am sure the ladies will enjoy it," stated Busch.

The orchestra has also been scheduled to play several numbers for the January graduation, next Wednesday evening. Selections to be heard will be announced later.

At The District Grammar Schools

At Jefferson

With the coming of the new year, Jefferson school lost several of its pupils due to families moving to other areas. Some of those who transferred were: Virginia and Seth Petersen, sixth and fourth grades, to Salt Lake City, Utah; Ruth, Mildred, and Lois Roe, seventh, fifth, and first grades, to San Francisco; Joseph de Leon, seventh grade, to Monterey; and Paul Willibanks, fifth grade, to Merced.

New enrollments at Jefferson school are: Michael Casentini, from San Carlos; Joseph Di Giordano, from San Francisco; and Dudley Hill, from San Francisco.

The Jefferson kindergarten is preparing for a new study unit of "The Farm." They plan to build a farm in miniature, including barns, fences, chicken coops, and silos.

Complete air raid instructions have been given to the pupils of Jefferson school, and daily drills have been held every day. The children were commended on the manner in which they responded to instructions.

The seventh grade is buying defense savings stamps as a class with one each week being set aside for defense stamp day. On the first day a total of $13.75 worth of stamps was purchased. Seventy-seven per cent of the class have booklets.

The third grade is making a study of the community of Colma, studying the business in the town, and locating streets on the map of Colma.

At Crocker

Students of Room 1 welcomed back Jack Farmer, who has been ill with pneumonia for the past two months.

"George Washington, Building the Nation," was a film shown in Room 3 last week. It was the last film dealing with the life of George Washington.

Large plastic maps have been added to the equipment at Crocker school to be used in the upper grades during the social science periods. The novel thing about the maps is that anything written on them can be easily erased.

At Woodrow

Claude Elizabeth Unselt began classes in the low sixth grade at Woodrow Wilson elementary last week.

To further their study of food, students of Room 12 are making a large map of the United States, showing where our foods are grown and produced.

Room 14 is studying a unit on power generation, including research of the "Hetch Hetchy" plant.

Jacob Hummel, Room 14, is collecting waste paper for the Boy Scouts in the Paper Conservation program.

Jimmy Finney, formerly of Colorado, was a new student welcomed into Room 15 last week.

BUS SERVICE and the WAR EMERGENCY

an important message to our patrons

"BUSINESS as usual" is out for the duration. There's a job to be done and America is going to see it through.

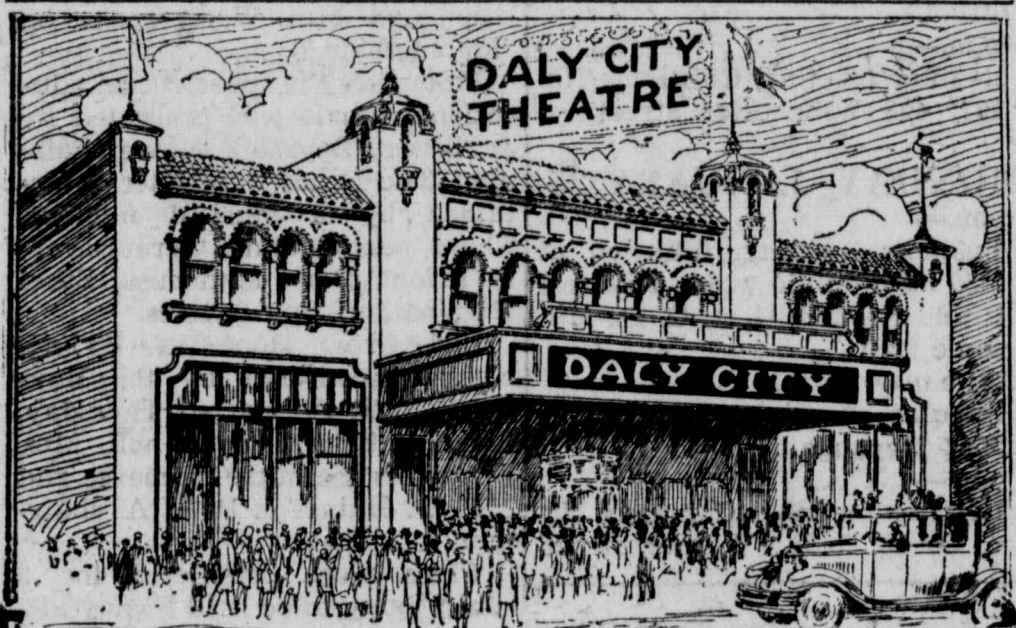

To speed that job Greyhound has submitted itself wholeheartedly to the needs of a nation at war. The bus industry is now actively in the war, carrying thousands of selectees to military centers and transporting other thousands in vital military movements.

Buses are already saving materials essential to the national war effort by carrying more people per gallon of fuel and per pound of rubber and metal than do private automobiles. But these savings must be greatly increased.

To conserve diminishing supplies of vital materials and perform the additional services demanded by war conditions, many adjustments in schedules and operation policies have not only been found advisable, but imperative.

This message is published to ask your cooperation and to assure you that we shall continue to provide the best bus service that war conditions will permit.

CUT DOWN ON SPEED!

TO DRIVERS OF MOTOR VEHICLES: In cooperation with the California State Automobile association, the San Mateo County Traffic Safety commission calls on you, to observe, voluntarily, a 45 miles an hour maximum speed limit, for the duration of the war, in order to conserve automobiles and increase traffic safety.

Take care of the car you have by driving safely. Slower and more careful driving will conserve tires and make the car last longer. Remember—if you wreck your car, you may not get another. Safety saves your car. Waste is a luxury we cannot afford in wartime. It is a patriotic duty to avoid accidents and speed causes accidents. You can fulfill this duty without sacrifice and inconvenience. You are asked only for cooperation. CUT YOUR MAXIMUM SPEED TO 45 MILES PER HOUR FOR THE DURATION.

chairman and members of each local committee have been instructed to make an immediate survey of the territory affected in their respective communities when disaster strikes, and to report their findings to the chairman at Red Cross disaster relief headquarters at once.

Bodien and Cavagnaro, and all other committees in the county, have been advised of the essential data required by the Red Cross, and have been provided with survey forms to be filed with the Red Cross headquarters within an hour after the disaster occurs, and periodically through the day thereafter.

Included on the forms of survey is a questionnaire on details such as the number of persons killed and injured, causes of injury, and the number requiring hospitalization; the number of homes destroyed or damaged, and an estimate of the number of persons requiring feeding or evacuation.

The committee will also report on operations of communications, transportation damaged or passable, and the condition of buildings previously assigned within the city for Red Cross emergency use.

All reports are received by the central relief office, and are directed to the proper committees for direct action. Most of the cities have co-ordinated their plans with their civilian defense councils, and in Daly City, the disaster relief efforts have been merged with the Civilian Defense Council work.

paign is jointly sponsored by the American Red Cross, the United Service Organizations and the American Library association.

Expressing appreciation to those who have already donated, Mrs. Horace Fellows, chairman of the local drive, announced that there was still a need for many more to reach Daly City's quota in the national drive for ten million books for service men. The Victory Book Campaign will not ask for money, but will ask for the general public to go over their libraries, and give one or more books to the boys in service. It was pointed out that no magazines are desired.

Books can be deposited in the public library, located at 6351 Mission street, and at the public schools. Mrs. Jean O'Rourke, head librarian, stated that books can be deposited at the slot in the front door of the library during the hours that the library is closed.

Types of reading matter the Victory Book Campaign desires for service men are books on science, travel, biography, history, business, law, medicine and fiction. This information was based on reports from camp librarians in the different branches of the service.

The books are to be placed in barracks and military outposts, on merchant ships, and at other service centers. Although the government supplies fine libraries for the men, they are sometimes inadequate in quantity, and the boys often walk five miles to libraries.

The Victory Book Campaign will continue until February 12, and those who have books are asked to give them as soon as possible.

Resume Night School Classes At Jeff High

State Director Lauds S. M. County For Civilian Defense Progress

San Mateo county is one of the six leading counties in the state in civilian defense progress, according to E. H. Spoor, new executive director of the California Office of Civilian Defense.

Following a survey of Chairman Earl P. Wilsey's report to the state, Spoor declared that San Mateo county's progress was particularly outstanding in defense training, a division which has shown much preparation and planning.

Arthur H. Quirmbach, Daly City representative in the county organization, heads the defense training course in addition to his duties as chairman of the public information committee. Quirmbach organized the course in conjunction with Gibson Kingren, co-ordinator of defense training, who works on a full time basis.

Instructions have been issued to the local councils throughout the county to organize courses for civilian defense officers in order that they may qualify for their jobs as air raid wardens, auxiliary firemen, and auxiliary police officers. Reports to the county show that the majority of the local councils have inserted the courses into their programs.

The state director commented that San Mateo county had one of the most complete training courses in the state.

Spoor replaced Richard Graves as chairman of the California Office of Civilian Defense when the pressure of other duties forced Graves to resign.

Admitting a State

No steps for admitting a state into the Union have been fixed, but a substantially uniform procedure has grown up. Ordinarily the process is set in motion by the people of the territory sending a petition to congress for admission as a state. If this is regarded with favor, congress passes an enabling act, authorizing the territorial officials to arrange for a popularly elected convention to frame a state constitution. After the constitution is prepared it is submitted to the people and, if adopted, is sent to congress for approval. If it is accepted, a resolution is passed declaring the territory a state.

De Soto Dealer Tells How To Save Tires

By doing a few simple things, says James E. Donahue, Daly City De Soto-Plymouth dealer, the average motorist can save up to 25 per cent in tire wear.

The average tire on more than half of the passenger cars on our roads today, points out Donahue, weighs from 20 to 25 pounds new, and loses from four to six or even seven pounds in wearing down completely. If the tire lasts two years, the average wear is around four ounces per tire each month. And it really is easy, he says, for a thoughtful, patriotic motorist to guard against loss of tire miles. His recommendations are:

"Check tire pressures frequently. If a tire needs 30 pounds, running with only 25 will waste from one quarter to one third the miles built into it. Normally tire pressure may go down as much as two pounds per week. Too much pressure, however, causes extra wear in the center of the tread, and over-inflated tires bounce off of rough pavement, slipping and scuffing off tread rubber. Keep the correct pressure as recommended by the tire manufacturer.

"Avoid excessive speed, the greatest enemy of tires. A 60-mile speed uses 50 per cent more rubber than a 40-mile speed traveling the same distance.

"Have a periodic wheel alignment check," advises Donahue. "A front tire only one-half inch out of line is dragged sideways 87 feet each mile it rolls.

"Avoid sudden jack-rabbit starts and skidding stops. Check brakes; badly adjusted and badly equalized brakes cause excessive and uneven wear. Don't strike curbs in turning or parking.

"Lastly, and most important," says Donahue, "always drive carefully. It's safer and it will always help to save rubber and fuel."

At their first meeting in February, Monday, February 9, Grand Arch Druidess Mrs. Minnie Lino will be their honored guest. This is the organization's official visit.

Plans will be completed for the event at their short business meeting, Monday, January 26.

fie Ford, clerk in the Daly City office, will assist the South San Francisco auxiliary board in registering the men in that district.

Registration of age groups other than the 20 to 44 will be effected in several registrations, according to Brigadier General Joseph O. Donovan, state director of selective service. Dates for additional registrations, which will cover the age groups between 18 to 64 years, will be announced later.

Although February 16 was selected as the registration date, the state headquarters decided to change to the plan of holding the three day registration period to allow defense industry employees ample time in which to register. Draft officials appealed to all employers of the men required to register that sufficient time be allowed for the men to register.

In calling for volunteers in Daly City and Colma for registrars' duties, Dr. McGovern received a speedy response and he placed registrars immediately.

Better Hurry Up!

Although the 1942 license plate renewal season is more than half gone, less than one third of the 3,000,000 motorists of California thus far have applied for their "cover strip" plates according to estimates released today by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

Blaming war conditions for the apparent apathy of the vehicle owners toward registration renewal, department officials said large numbers are due to pay penalties equal to 100 per cent of their fee if they neglect to file applications before February 4, the delinquent date.

Vehicle owners are urged to act promptly to avoid penalties and possible inconvenience.

to residents when Bodien stated that all wardens and officers must complete training courses of the county before they can secure insignias and means of identification to enforce their orders.

Chief Air Raid Warden Julius Twisten declared residents of Daly City should not purchase equipment for blackouts until they were told by their wardens what materials are needed. This course of action, Twisten pointed out, would eliminate buying unnecessary supplies for blackouts. Twisten asked that wherever it is possible, residents should utilize materials which they already have on hand rather than buy new material.

Twisten stated that new materials should be conserved for use in the war effort as much as possible. By buying them when they are not needed, residents would not only practice extravagance, but would be using materials needed for defense production.

The meeting for February will be held jointly with the other units of Daly City at Jefferson Union high school, 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, February 17.

UNIVERSAL PRESS WINS THREE STRAIGHT GAMES IN D. C. LEAGUE

Universal Press showed fine form in defeating the Sheriff's Office in three straight games, Friday night, in the Daly City bowling league.

The loss forced the Sheriffs into a tie for second place with Daly City Cleaners, although the Cleaners were walloped, 2 to 1, by an improved Milo's Market team. Universal has a five game lead on the two second-place teams.

Close by the Cleaners and Sheriffs are the bowlers of Colma-Vista Grande Eagles, who were victorious over Curry's Barbers by a score of 2 to 1. The Eagles are but one game behind the second-place teams.

Daly City-Colma Lions failed to roar again as they were soundly thumped by Conci's Shell Service.

Following is the schedule for this week in the league: Eagles and Conci's Shell Service, alleys 1 and 2; Sheriffs and Cleaners, alleys 3 and 4; Milo's Market and Universal Press, alleys 5 and 6; and Lions and Curry's Barbers, alleys 7 and 8.

Jefferson Cagers Win One In Four

Jefferson high school cagers came out on the long end of one score in the four basketball games played, last week, in the two weight divisions.

In a non-league attraction, Tuesday, Jefferson's unlimiteds annexed their only victory of the week over St. Ignatius varsity by a score of 22 to 15. Bill Freeman paced the scorers with a total of 9 points. In the 130 game, Jefferson took a 23 to 16 beating by St. Ignatius lightweights.

Friday's doubleheader against the league-leading Burlingame teams spelled disaster for Jefferson in Peninsula Athletic league play. After a fast start in the first quarter, Jefferson's varsity team cooled off as the game progressed, and were drubbed, 46 to 25. The Jeffs led by a 12 to 4 score at the end of the first period, but during the rest of the game the Burlingame lads found the basket with increasing accuracy.

In the lightweight game, Burlingame had a big first half, leading, 19 to 6 at the rest period, and outshot the locals during the rest of the game to win a 26 to 15 victory.

TRAFFIC COURT

Attorney Defends Wife At Court

Representing his wife as defense counsel in traffic court, Friday, Arthur J. Olson, San Francisco attorney, asked for a thirty day stay of execution to appeal the case which was found guilty by Judge John J. Fahey.

Mrs. Olson appeared on a charge of violating the speeding law, and plead not guilty to the charge in a previous hearing. Olson waived a jury trial, and Judge Fahey found the defendant guilty, sentencing her to pay a fine of $10. Judge Fahey granted Olson's request for a thirty day extension of time.

Judge Fahey reached a decision after hearing the testimonies of the defendant, and Sergeant Ricco Benedetti, the officer who arrested Mrs. Olson. She denied the testimony of Sergeant Benedetti when he stated that he clocked her at 68 miles an hour. Mrs. Olson claimed that she had not exceeded fifty miles an hour. Following the testimonies, Judge Fahey examined the speedometer certificate of the officer, and pronounced sentence.

Proceeding with other cases on the docket, Judge Fahey fined John Williams, San Francisco, $50 on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor.

John J. Verducci, San Francisco, paid a fine of $4 on a speeding charge.

George E. Wilson, Burlingame, was fined $1.50 for failing to stop at a signal.

Zarefa Maloof, San Francisco, and Barge Josephsen, Los Altos, each paid a fine of $1 for failing to stop at a signal.

Any civilian who desires to purchase new tires or tubes must make application to the Rationing board before the purchase can be made. All applicants who are found eligible by the board receive a certificate authorizing the purchase.

No certificate may be issued unless the applicant certifies that the tire or tube is to be mounted on vehicles such as those operated by doctors, nurses, ambulances, school or industrial vehicles, public or industrial material transports, or any vehicles specifically used for the protection of public health or safety.

The board urged all applicants whose vehicles did not answer the qualifications of the OPA rules, not to apply.

BLACKOUT
see it through with cheerful light

From time to time, within certain areas, there are going to be alarms that call for blackouts. All such alarms call for serious BLACKOUTS. That means EVERY HOME or BUILDING MUST be BLACK OUTSIDE. No beckoning finger of light should be visible to air raid wardens or the enemy.

Many alarms may come in daylight. But when alarms come at night, there should be no sitting in the dark for an hour or so. Blackout and keep lights on. Schools are carrying on just the same and home work must be completed. Knitting socks or mending clothes will grow to be more and more vital parts of defense material conservation. News of the day will be read more carefully. There is going to be less and less gadding about in the family auto.

Keep spirits up by carrying on with cheerful light. Use modern softly-diffused lighting. Do away with glaring light. Install and buy modern lighting that is cheerful and easy on the eyes. There is no shortage yet of better lighting fixtures and lamps. Equip your home now with modern eye-saving light.

PIN-IT-UP

This is a handy portable type of light that is ideal for blackout rooms. Plug it in and hang it up like a picture on the wall.

DINING-ROOM

Are your dining room lights bright and glaring as candles? Cut off that glare and have better light from a modern fixture that throws soft pleasing light downward on the table.

KITCHEN

Many homes are fixing the kitchen to be light proof outside. Install a modern kitchen lighting unit that assures appetites will be satisfied on regular meal times.
